

July 5, 2020 am

Dr. Jay Robertson

"Joseph the Servant of Prisoners"
Genesis 40

Memory Verse: 1 Corinthians 12:13

- I. Joseph Is the Servant of Servants (40:1-8)
- II. Joseph Interprets for the Cupbearer (40:9-15)
- III. Joseph Interprets for the Baker (40:16-19)
- IV. Joseph's Interpretations Are True (40:20-23)

Three Takeaways

- 1. The circumstances of our service do not determine the value of our service.
  - a. 1 Corinthians 12:12-13
  - b. Galatians 3:28
  - c. 1 Corinthians 1:26-31
- 2. God is actively involved in the affairs of his people wherever they are.
  - a. Psalm 139:7-10
  - b. Mathew 10:30; Luke 12:7
  - c. There are no insignificant people in the redemptive plan of God.
- 3. God knows and is in control of the future.
  - a. Isaiah 42:9

Conclusion

A. The Gospel Definition

As our nation celebrates our independence this weekend, may we as Christians declare our dependence upon God and his amazing grace.

Fathers, let us lead our families in worshiping our Father and his Son Jesus Christ. Let us lead our families to memorize our memory verse (1 Corinthians 12:13) this week. Let us train our children to think Christianly in this Genesis 3 world we live in presently.