“Transformation in Egypt”
Genesis 44

I. Judah Is the Servant of His Father (44:1-23)

II. Judah Is the Substitute for the One Whom His Father Loves (44:24-34)

A. A Pledge to His Father (John 14:31; John 10:18)

B. A Plea to Joseph

C. A Pardon for Benjamin (John 15:13; Mark 10:45)

Takeaways

1. God Has Transformed Israel’s Family

“This theme, that God overrules the wicked intentions of men and women in order to save his people, runs throughout the Old Testament, but perhaps nowhere more explicitly than in the Joseph narrative.” (Wayne Grudem)

2. Judah Is the Son of Promise

3. God’s Providence Has Not Failed (Ephesians 1:11; Philippians 2:13)
