Joel Bishop

Sermon: "A Biblical Approach to Children's Ministry"

Scripture: Deuteronomy 6:4-9

Memory Verse: Matthew 19:14

Big Idea: A biblical children's ministry requires doctrine, devotion, and diligence.

I. Children Need Sound Biblical Doctrine (Deut 6:4)

II. Children Need Parents Devoted to Christ and His Church (Deut 6:5)

III. Children Need Diligent Instruction of the Christian Faith (Deut 6:6-9)

IV. Application

A. Children need parents in love with Jesus.

B. Children need parents that know proper theology.

C. Children need a local church that supports their parents, and sees them as the future and not a hindrance.

D. Children, and their parents, need Jesus.
